

Interfraternity Council Code of Ethics

The purpose of the Oklahoma State University Interfraternity Council Code of Ethics is to promote the highest standards of excellence and integrity within fraternal organizations. This code sets forth guidelines for creating a safe and respectful environment for members of all fraternities, and encourages the promotion of respect, cooperation, collaboration, philanthropy, and responsible decision-making. These guidelines will ensure that our organizations uphold the core values of our organizations and foster diversity and inclusion within our community.

Oklahoma State University Interfraternity Council Code of Ethics

1. We pledge to promote the highest standards of excellence and integrity in our fraternal organizations.
2. We will strive to create a safe and respectful environment for members of all fraternities, regardless of gender, race, religion, or sexual orientation.
3. We will maintain an environment that is free from physical, emotional, and sexual harassment.
4. We will promote respect for the individual and the organizations we serve.
5. We will uphold the core values of our organizations and foster diversity and inclusion within our community.
6. We will strive to create an atmosphere of cooperation and collaboration among the fraternities and sororities at Oklahoma State University.
7. We will promote responsible decision-making by our members and strive to prevent the misuse of alcohol and other substances.
8. We will encourage our members to cultivate a culture of philanthropy and service to our community.
9. We will respect the property of the university, community, and our organizations.

10. We will strive to create an atmosphere of mutual respect, understanding, and respect for the rights of others.
