The NPHC Social Justice Award

The Greek community is strongly united and growing in numbers. On campus, Greek members have proven themselves as empowered, strong campus leaders. Because fraternity and sorority chapters are self-governing bodies in which the members take on the responsibilities and offices of the organization, Greek life is a special living and learning environment. Many of the Divine Nine organizations were founded on common values such as political activism and civic engagement. With recent events circulating the media in regards to social injustice, many Greek organizations have aimed to become political advocates. Their thoughts and ideas have been demonstrated through their chapter programming. The hands-on experience helps members develop leadership, organization and communication skills. Chapters and members interact and make connections with other student and departments on campus. Whether a member is a natural leader, wants to cultivate his/her skills or just wants to be involved, Greek life will help him/her develop their unique, individual potential. This award will be presented to the chapter whose program advocated for community engagement and political activism in the OSU community.

The NPHC Community Service Award

While having their own distinct heritages, the nine (9) member organizations of NPHC offer insight and a unique perspective into this understanding and the development of Black socioeconomic and cultural life. Although NPHC affiliate organizations recognize the social aspect of Greek college life, the primary purpose and focus of member organizations remains community awareness and action through educational, economic, and cultural service activities. NPHC affiliates and their respective members have pledged to devote their resources to service in their respective communities, realizing that the membership experience of NPHC organizations goes beyond organizational membership during an individual's college career. Members of NPHC organizations are expected to commit themselves to service through the goals and ideals of the organizations. It is expected that NPHC organizations will take an active part in matters concerning and affecting the community in which they reside.

This award will be presented to the chapter whose goals and objectives, and programs demonstrate and encourage membership participation in community service projects, activities and events.

Please discuss all service projects your chapter hosted/sponsored during 2018. These should also include those that your chapter participated in as part of your national and local philanthropy efforts. Include why the event was successful, how many people attended the event, the purpose of the event, target audience, service performed, hours accumulated and any other information that you believe is relevant for us to understand the event

Please indicate if project was open to non-members of your organization. If so, in addition to providing the information listed above, please provide the following for each program:

- Samples of flyers, "handbills," invitations, etc.
- Pictures of the event showcasing attendance and activities taking place
- Copy of programs or workshop materials (if applicable)
- Any evaluations that were used to assess the program/event's effectiveness
- Any additional handouts from the event

It is important for NPHC organizations to support university and campus service projects to assist in fostering the campus culture. Please provide the following information for all service projects the chapter participated in during 2018 that were sponsored by a non-Greek organization:

The NPHC Scholarship Award

Academic excellence is the basic foundation of higher education. Student organizations should at all time encourage their members to perform at their best in regards to their scholastic endeavors. The primary purpose of the National Pan-Hellenic Council is to create and maintain our own high standards and to perpetuate constructive relationships both within and among our affiliate organizations. Additionally, the council fosters an understanding of the structure and method of operation among the affiliate organizations, addresses, coordinates, and develops action strategies on matters of mutual concern to the affiliate organizations, and acts as a conduit for such action plans that may be developed. The council holds high academic standards for its affiliate members. Due to this standard, the OSU Chapter of NPHC will award an NPHC organization the NPHC Scholarship Award.

The organization earning the highest grade point average award will exhibit high academic achievement by having the highest cumulative grade point average of all NPHC organizations on the OSU campus for the spring and fall 2018 semesters. The organization awarded the most improved grade point average will demonstrate the highest increase in chapter grade point average from the spring 2018 semester to the fall 2018 semester.

Please sign the form below and return it along with other application packet materials. All information will be provided and calculated by the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Affairs at Oklahoma State University.

The Academic Excellence in Scholarship Award will be determined using the scoring system listed below:

_____ Chapter's Spring 2018 Combined Grade Point Average

_____ Chapter's Fall 2018 Combined Grade Point Average

Highest Grade Point Average

_____ Chapter Grade Point Average [(Spring 2018 + Fall 2018)/2 = CGPA]

Most Improved Grade Point Average

_____ Chapter's Improved Grade Point Average (Fall 2018 – Spring 2018 = CIGPA)

Grade Point Average Submitted for Scoring

_____ Chapter's Complete Grade Point Average [(CGPA + CIGPA)/2 = CCGPA]

The Chapter's Complete Grade Point Average (CCGPA) will be used to determine the recipient of the NPHC Scholarship Award. The chapter with the highest CCGPA will be awarded this award. The chapter (s) having the Highest Grade Point Average and the Most Improved Grade Point Average will be recognized for having such at the Greek Awards Banquet.

Tips for a Successful Award Packet

- START EARLY. Don't wait until the last minute to complete the packet.
- PROOFREAD your packet, particularly essay responses. Pay close attention to grammar, punctuation and spelling mistakes. It is highly recommended that you have an advisor or professor read over your complete packet before submission.
- RESPECT OTHER PEOPLE'S TIME. Give your recommendation writer enough time to complete your recommendation letter. Do not give it to them the day before the deadline.
- BE YOURSELF. There is no "right" answer.
- DON'T PROCRASTINATE. Deadlines are final. Your packet will not be considered if it is late.
- TAKE RESPONSIBILITY for your packet. Make a copy of your packet for your records and make sure that ALL pieces of your packet are included before you submit it for scoring.
