MRABA Contract
(Membership Recruitment Acceptance Binding Agreement)

• Sunday (pref) night PNMs asked to sign MRABA.
• Promises to accept a bid from one of the (up to) three chapters she lists.
• If she lists all of her possible options on the contract, she is guaranteed a bid from one of those sororities.
MRABA Contract

(Membership Recruitment Acceptance Binding Agreement)

• If she signs the contract, but does not accept a bid from one of the chapters she lists, she cannot participate in recruitment until Fall 2016.
Intentional Single Preference

- If she does not sign the contract or does not list all of her options and does not receive a bid, she is eligible to participate in Continuous Open Recruitment (COR) immediately.
- If the PNM is 100% certain she would not accept a bid from a chapter, she should not list it on her MRABA.
- If a PNM ISPs, she is not guaranteed a bid on Monday.
Continuous Open Bidding

- Occurs based on chapter totals.
  - If chapters are below average chapter size, they can participate in COB.
- Not every chapter will participate.
- It is not required for chapters below chapter total to participate.
Recruitment Week

- PNM line up alphabetically.
- Chapter members will sing as the doors open.
- PNM shakes members’ hands.
- May talk to multiple chapter members.
- Exits while chapters sing.
