- 1. Jdiobe: If the Chair/Vice Chair were under violation who would spearhead/take over the committee and investigation?
  - a. A: We can add something about that, maybe involve the supreme court
  - 2. Johnsen: Why don't we just elect the three members to do the investigation since it rarely happens?
  - . A: We could do that, I like that idea.
  - 3. Botts: How bad does something have to get to go to the supreme court?
  - . A: Not that bad, you can file a writ
  - 4. Impeachment process discussion from entire committee
  - 5. McLeod: Is each senator not have the right to a trial?
  - . A: This isn't a trial. They may have hearing to question them based off the facts we found through a written warning or verdict we come across. The hearing would be head by the vice chair.

6. Jdiobe: Some people are emotional or have strong feelings, I have seen people not be able to defend themselves. Do you think an accused person could go to a friend and explain everything and have that friend help defend them?

- . A: I understand what you're saying, but I don't see a need for this.
  - 7. Anything can be reported to any member of the committee
  - 8. Grey: motion to table this bill for 2 weeks

. Motion carries

B. Apportionment discussion

1. McLeod: People are going to be in a college and a living group?...

. A: Living groups get 25 seats and colleges get 25 seats.

a. A: Let the record show that Daniel and Lauren are heading up apportionment
