 - a. Officer Queen- Shoot Prevention Video/Training: yet to be determined how the video will be released for everyone, but it is in the discussion phase. The information is the same for all students, faculty and staff, while there is the understanding that faculty and staff will take first responsibility. The training will not be specific to a college classroom or a specific place on campus, this training can be used for any situation. The Student Union, Library and Classroom Building are the areas with the highest student attendance throughout the year, so while the training video can be used anywhere, we are showing them in it because of the high attendance. This will be the first of several videos we want to provide for students. While the video will be available in the future, we will still do in person training. We will do the in-person training as often as we can when requested.
