- i. Next week there will be a fun bingo game during my report!
- j. Swearingin: Since there is a difference between pass/no pass and pass/fail, so why was pass/no pass chosen?
 - i. You can't take a pass/fail course without knowing ahead of the time, so we can't give students an F if they did not originally sign up for a class without knowing that.
- k. Dethloff: who is serving on the committee for pass/no pass?
 - i. Register, vice provost, department heads, myself, someone from GPSGA
- l. Muller: How is the administration figuring out people who don't have email access and still finishing their courses?
 - i. Call the registers office, sadly so much of our communication relies on email, but if they can't, call the registrar

VIII. Vice President's Report- Kristen Ball

- a. All events for the rest of the semester have been cancelled, still trying to get some stuff done via social media.
- b. Still focusing on mental health.
- c. Family resource center has what was left in the food pantry, we are still wanting to help those here on campus who don't have a lot of support.
- d. Murphey: Do you have plans for the food that was in your office?
 - i. It went to the family resource center and they are distributing it to residents
- e. Hoelting: What are we doing for mental health resources for students?
 - i. Promoting the online resources for mental health for students. I have been talking with counseling center and what info they give me, I will be pushing out.

IX. Floor Speeches

X. Unfinished Business

- a. S20BL020: A bill amending Title III to create a mock trial competition.
 - i. Dethloff: Motion to table S20BL020 until next senate meeting.
 - ii. Murphey: Second
 - iii. Motion to pass.

XI. New Business

- a. S20BL028: A bill amending Title II; introducing the position of Mental Health Director.
 - i. Murphey: This question applies to most of these bills, the cabinet is split between President and VP, what was the thinking for it being appointed by both?
 - 1. We think that president and VP should have an equal playing field, even though the bylaws say what our responsibilities are, we want to show we are making decisions together, it keeps us in check and we can work together, we are keeping that trend for any legislation we write together so it's an even playing field.
 - ii. Follow-up: Sounds like what will work best for your time in office, but how do we think this will affect them in the future or will it keep changing year after year?
 - 1. I don't see how someone considering both positions is a bad thing and I hope it is a trend we see, they should be working hand in hand, it's a step in a better director for both of us to have say in it, we want to reflect the students best interest and I think that this is the best way, its reflecting the way things currently are.

- iii. Dethloff: This is a positive change, but are you planning all of changing section 2 or just the ones going through tonight

 - 1. This committee isn't meant to do events, so it will be smaller because we want to efficient and there isn't programing since they go to administrative meetings.

 - a. Quorum is 50+1 of current members of senate, that would mean 26 would be quorum for us for all meetings but this has it were it where we would also have quorum every time, we meet.
 - 2. Salcedo: Is there any ways to do proxy?

 - b. Opponency:
 - i. Hoelting: I understand the position we are facing but I am concerned about the quorum of senators who come at the beginning. This means that the university would be underrepresented. This would mean that we would have a quorum of about 13 senators which would not represent the people who appointed us.
