

Oklahoma State University SPEAKER SERIES

PRESENTED BY THE SPEARS SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND CORPORATE SPONSORS

WILLIAM J.
(BILL) WARREN

President,
Warren Theatres

"If It's Not Great, It's Not Acceptable"

William J. 'Bill' Warren began his cinema marketing career as a ticket-taker at the original Miller Theatre in Wichita, Kansas. In 1996, Warren set a new standard for showing motion pictures with the creation of the Warren Theatre, which represents his tribute to those palatial movie houses of the golden age.

FRANCIS SHAMMO

Chief Financial Officer,
Verizon

"Leading the Mobile Revolution"

An instrumental leader in the growth of today's digital economy, Fran Shammo oversees all aspects of Verizon's financial and strategic planning operations. At #16 on the Fortune 500, Verizon operates America's largest 4G LTE wireless network and the nation's premiere fiber broadband network.

ANN COMPTON

Legendary ABC News' White
House Correspondent (1973-2014)

"Inside the White House, Current Events and the 2016 Presidential Election"

A distinguished and highly respected veteran of the White House press corps, Ann Compton offers audiences a historical perspective of the presidency and the biggest stories of our time, today's headline-making events and the 2016 presidential election.

GEN. KEITH
ALEXANDER

Commander, U.S. Cyber Command
(2010-2014) and Director, National Security Agency/Chief, Central
Security Service (2005-2014)

"A Road Map to Freedom:

The Strategy of Effective Cyber Security"

A four-star Army general and the highest-ranked military official of U.S. Cyber Command, the National Security Agency and the Central Security Service, Gen. Keith Alexander has played a pivotal role in securing our safety at home and abroad for the past decade.
